

1. What was announced?

- a. After reviewing a wide range of options related to the Company's financial position, LINN and its subsidiaries announced that they have entered into a restructuring support agreement with its first-lien lenders and filed voluntary petitions for restructuring under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.
- b. We believe that these steps will provide us the financial flexibility to successfully manage in the current commodity price environment and provide a platform for future growth.

2. What is Chapter 11?

- a. Chapter 11 is the section of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code that allows companies to implement financial restructurings through a court-supervised proceeding while continuing to operate their businesses.

3. Does this mean that LINN is going out of business?

- a. No. We expect to continue to operate our assets in the normal course throughout the court-supervised financial restructuring process.
- b. It is important to understand that the agreement with certain of our first-lien lenders - and the planned court-supervised process - will enable LINN to restructure our balance sheet while continuing our operations in the normal course.
- c. We fully expect to meet our business obligations in the normal course.
- d. The agreement we have reached will allow us to use our existing cash on hand and funds generated from ongoing operations, which we believe will provide sufficient liquidity to support the business during the financial restructuring process.

4. Does LINN have sufficient liquidity to meet its business obligations?

- a. The agreement we have reached will allow us to use our existing cash on hand and funds generated from ongoing operations, which we believe will provide sufficient liquidity to support the business during the financial restructuring process.

5. Why did LINN take this action?

- a. We believe that these steps will provide us the financial flexibility to successfully manage in the current commodity price environment and provide a platform for future growth.

6. How long will the Chapter 11 process take?

- a. It is too early to say how long this process will last.
- b. Recognizing that the pace of a court-supervised process is not within our control, we have entered into an agreement with more than two-thirds of our first-lien lenders and we are working proactively with our other creditors to facilitate an outcome as expeditiously as possible.
- c. Overall, we intend to move through this court-supervised process as quickly and efficiently.
